

Automatic magnetic card dispenser / reloader for copiers

CARTADIS DRC4

To dispense and reload cards automatically

For a full self-service
operation

The above DRC4 is fitted with a coin mechanism and a banknote reader (ref. DRC4-A)

- According to the Cartadis DRC4 chosen, magnetic cards can be sold and reloaded against coin and/or banknote insertion (description overleaf).
- With Cartadis DRC4 cards can be both dispensed to users who had none, or reloaded, whether their credit had already been spent out or not.
- Such cards are solely intended for Cartadis terminals, i. e. copier access control units.
- With Cartadis DRC4 and a set of Cartadis terminals, you can fit out a site of several copiers for full "self-service" operation.

■ For checking cash and collecting sales statistics

Sales statistics can be read by a person in charge of the unit and viewed on display screens, or printed out by means of the Cartadis printer (optional). These data consist of:

- . receipts,
- . number of cards sold/reloaded,
- . number of copies reloaded on the cards.

The statistics are available in both cumulated and periodical shape.

■ For setting selling prices

Cartadis DRC4 is provided with a programming keyboard which is located inside the unit and accessible to the person in charge.

With Cartadis DRC4 you can determine selling prices such as:

- . card dispensing price possibly including a certain number of allowed copies,
- . card reloading price with 4 decreasing prices available.

■ Example of use

Cartadis equipment is especially suitable for use in a public or a university library.

This can be highlighted by the following example:

- . a library is provided with 8 copiers equipped with Cartadis TC4N's,
- . a Cartadis DRC4 dispenser/reloader is installed at the entrance of the library,
- . the selling prices of the cards, distributed and reloaded by the Cartadis DRC4, are set as follows:

New card price	●	with 14 copies = £ 1.00
Decreasing copy price for card card reloads	●	1 copy = £ 0.05 65 copies = £ 3.00 116 copies = £ 5.00 263 copies = £ 10.00
